

Art Lessons Can Change Your Life!

I should know, because taking art lessons changed MY life!

Hello! I'm Lois Gallo. Only a few short years ago I was looking for a way to express myself more artistically and began to take art lessons.

From discovering a medium and a means of expression I am passionate about - to working at it to hone my craft - to winning awards in shows - to having my own gallery and studio space... That's all a part of the incredible art journey I've been fortunate enough to take so far!

But it's not over yet! And part of my passion is helping others understand and succeed in the business of art. I've learned what it takes to develop artistically, whether you want an art career or just to have fun. That's why I give lessons in Impressionistic oil painting techniques, as well as share opportunities and insights into the world of art, most of which you don't learn in art school!

With both a business and arts background, I can help you move forward to where you really want to go in art!
