“THE FINE ART OF FINE WINE”

VIRGINIA BEACH – Connoisseurs of fine wine and fine art will be in their element at the “Moments in Wine” Art Show and Wine Tasting on Friday, April 20th from 7 to 9 p.m. at the Hunter Hogan Gallery. This exciting event is a joint venture with the Barry Robinson Theater and Fine Arts Center and Total Wine of Norfolk. The solo show by Virginia Beach artist and BrushWorks Gallery owner Lois Gallo features a delightful array of impressionist paintings, expressing still life vignettes, seasonal vineyards and wine-related scenes, from Europe to California and back to Virginia.

While the connoisseurs are enjoying the art journey, they can sip on a few 90+ point Robert Parker rated wines, should they choose to purchase a separate wine tasting ticket. A few of the featured wines presented by Total Wine include Caymus Cabernet Special Select, Scavino Barolo, and Feuillate Palmes D’or Brut Vintage.

Lois Gallo’s award-winning work has been accepted in numerous juried shows and viewed in most area galleries and other venues. While her art has grown in popularity and volume, creating a demand for her own space at BrushWorks Gallery eighteen months ago, Gallo’s passion for painting and sharing her “New Impressionist” technique has grown into the Lois Gallo Fine Art School.

The Hunter Hogan Gallery is located in the Bishop Sullivan Catholic High School at 4552 Princess Anne Road in Virginia Beach, and is part of the Barry Robinson Theater and Fine Arts Center. The gallery and reception are open to the public at no charge. The “Moments in Wine” show runs April 2nd through 30th. The gallery is, however, closed the week of April 9th due to spring break. The special wine tasting tickets are $22 and should be reserved by calling 757-467-2887 or emailing clarksoe@chsvb.org. More details about the show and location may be viewed at www.brtfac.org or at www.LoisGalloArt.com.
